What Red Cross Seals Do.

Every Red Cross Christmas Seal that is sold is a real bullet in the fight against tuberculosis. These seals last year helped to support thousands of needy tuberculosis patients and to give them a chance for life. They provided for many visiting nurses, whose hundreds of thousands of visits brought instruction and cheer to numerous patients. They helped maintain dispensaries in scores of cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, where thousands of consumptive patients received free treatment, aid and advice. They provided the means to purchase millions of copies of circulars, pamphlets and other literature with which the public has been educated about tuberculosis. They have established and helped to maintain more than 500 open air schools for children who need open air treatment. These are just a few of the ways in which the $550,000 received last year was expended. This year a million dollars is needed. Surely any one can help by buying at least ten seals!

The mid-winter meeting of the Kentucky Press Association will be held at Lexington, Dec. 27 and 28.

Vice-President Thos. R. Marshall is quoted as saying that he does not want to run again. This commits us to the ticket of Wilson and James.

A drummer named J. N. Boome, who was the thirteenth guest to register Wednesday, lost his life when the Hotel Kidd burned at Prince on, Ind.

Red Cross Christmas Seals went on sale here Dec. 1. Many stores in the city will help to fight Consumption by engaging in the sale of the seals.

Money derived therefrom goes to help some Tuberculosis patient in Christian county.

Women love a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters is splendid for purifying the blood, clearing the skin, restoring digestion. All druggists sell it. Price $1.00.—Advertisement.

Obesity Cures.

We are all asking for diets and systems of exercises for reducing the weight, but it must be borne in mind that the reduction of weight must invariably be accompanied by a reduction in strength. This means that the woman who systematically enters upon a dietary, bathing and exercise system must give herself over to this entirely, for it will exhaust her strength if it removes the flesh. The woman who does her own housework or the woman who is in business must not undertake bathing, violent physical exercise or bathing and combine with these her regulation work. Physique and nerves cannot endure the strain. A breakdown is inevitable.

Eczema spreads rapidly; itching almost drives you mad. For quick relief, Doan's Ointment is well recommended. 50c at all stores.—Advertisement.

Rain Unequally Distributed.

The heaviest rains occur in equatorial regions, and the smallest quantities fall in the desert districts of Asia and Africa.

The day of harsh physic is gone. People want mild, easy laxatives. Doan's Regulets have satisfied thousands. 25c at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

RECOVER FROM BAD WOUNDS

Injuries That a Short Time Ago Were Thought Fatal Yield to Modern Surgery.

The case of the soldier who has been lying in a Munich hospital for four months with a bullet in his heart serves to show that there is a possibility of recovery after almost any form of injury. Playwrights and novelists usually make their villains die immediately when pierced through the heart, but hunters have often seen bears and other big game run over a hundred yards after receiving such a wound, and in recent wars several cures of heart wounds have been effected.

When a bullet touches the brain, recovery is not rare, provided that only the outer portion of this organ be injured, and that no large blood vessels be opened. In the Anatomical Museum of Harvard university may be seen a drill, four feet long, which was blown entirely through the brain of a mechanic, from below upward, destroying the sight of one eye, yet the man recovered and subsequently proved capable of earning his living.

War Upon Pain!

Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.

Mervin H. Soister, Berkeley, Cal., writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application, I was as good as new."

Labor.

Labor is the contest of the life of man with an opposite. Literally, it is the quantity or lapse, loss or failure of human life, caused by any effort. It is usually confused with effort itself, or the application of power, but there is much effort which is merely a mode of recreation or of pleasure. The most beautiful actions of the human body and the highest results of the human intelligence are conditions, or achievements, of quite unlabored—nay, of recreative effort. But labor is the suffering in effort. It is the negative quantity—or quantity of defeat—which has to be counted against every feat, and of defeat which has to be counted against every fact or deed of men. In brief, it is "that quantity of our toil which we die in."—John Ruskin.

Brown Spots on Old China.

The beauty of old china is often destroyed by brown spots which appear on the surface, says the Toledo Blade. An effective way to remove these is to bury the dish in the earth, covering it completely. The darker spots require more time to remove them than the lighter ones. This method will not harm the most delicate china.

What Boys Are Like.

In the American Magazine Frances L. Garside, writing under the title "Just Boys," contributed the following paragraph: "If a boy is quiet, everyone wonders what he is up to now, and if he is noisy everyone knows and disapproves. When a boy enters a room in which there are seated the members of the family and his dog, he always speaks to the dog first."

Use for Onions.

Onions are good for cleaning steel articles that have rusted. Rub the rust spots with a piece of onion and leave for 24 hours. Wash and polish with bathbrick dust, moistened with turpentine. Wash again in soda and scald with clear water. Knives that have rust spots of long standing should be plunged into an onion and allowed to stand for some time. Finish the cleaning process as above.

SHOOK EVEN DIVER'S NERVES

Sights in Ship Sunk by Submarine Too Much for Veteran Who Had Seen Many Such.

"Yes," said a well-known diver recently, in a quiet voice, "one of the most awful sights I have ever seen was witnessed recently; it was a steamer sunk by a submarine. When I got down to her, the people in the saloon looked exactly as if they were alive. All had their eyes open—the women had piteous expressions on their faces; some had actually stuffed handkerchiefs in their mouths to try to prevent suffocation—and when the saloon door was opened they all seemed to dance toward me. I signaled to the surface, and as I moved backward they also moved, until it was possible to take them off one by one. But the thing that seemed to me the most striking of all was this: The man at the wheel, who had been a mate of mine in time past, had gone down with his ship, and when I looked there he was still, with both hands on the wheel, his face rigid and set, looking as if he were a figure cast in bronze. When I tried to move his hands from the wheel to take him up, I found it impossible; they were clinched beyond my strength. I felt queer, signaled 'Up,' and a few moments later my helmet was unscrewed and they were gently sponging the blood from my face and nostrils."

She Was Smothering.

Rockford, Ala.—Mrs. M. C. Parchal, of this place, says: "I was taken with nervous prostration, and had headache, backache, pains in my right side, and smothering spells. I called in physicians to treat my case, but without relief. Finally, I tried Cardui, and it gave perfect satisfaction. I recommend it to every sick woman." Are you weak, tired, worn-out? Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women? Cardui has a record of over fifty years in relieving such troubles, and will certainly benefit you. It prevents those frequent headaches, and keeps you up, out of bed, feeling happy. Try Cardui.—Advertisement.

If Death Ends All.

And suppose after all that death does end all. Next to eternal joy, next to being forever with those we love and who have loved us—next to that, is to be wrapped in the dreamless drapery of eternal peace. Next to eternal life is eternal sleep. Upon the shadowy shore of death the sea of trouble casts no wave. Eyes that have been tortured by the everlasting dark will never know again the burning touch of tears. Lips touched by eternal silence will never speak again the broken words of grief. Hearts of dust do not break. The dead do not weep. Within the tomb no wailed and weeping sorrow sits. And in the rayless gloom is crouched no shuddering fear.—Robert Ingersoll.

Colds Need Attention.

Internal throat and chest troubles produce inflammation, irritation, swelling or soreness and unless checked at once, are likely to lead to serious trouble. Caught in time Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey loosens the phlegm and destroys the germs which have settled in the throat or nose. It is soothing and healing. Pine is antiseptic; honey is soothing—both together possess excellent medicinal qualities for fighting cold germs. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. 25c. all Druggists. Advertisement.
